

SARAH BRADLEY TYSON MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

ESTABLISHED IN 1928 BY

WOMAN'S NATIONAL FARM & GARDEN ASSOCIATION, Inc.

The Woman's National Farm and Garden Association offers the Sarah Bradley Tyson Memorial Fellowship for advanced study in agriculture, horticulture, and allied subjects. The fellowship is open to properly qualified young women who have proven their ability by several years experience. Awards have been made in recognition of leadership in cooperative extension work and initiative in scientific research.

The amount of the award is between $1,000 and $3,000.

The fellowship is to be used for advanced study (masters or doctorate) at an educational institution of recognized standing within the United States. It is to be chosen by the candidate and with the approval of the Fellowship Committee.

APPLICATION

There are no application forms. A letter of request for a brochure should be sent to the chairman of the committee with a self addressed, self stamped envelope.

Note: Please, study the brochure carefully, well before the April 15th deadline.

The letter of application should contain:

1. An account of the applicant's educational training.
2. A statement, in full, of the object in view and the plan of study.
3. A certificate (transcript) from the registrar of the school, college or university awarding the degree or degrees received by the applicant.
4. Testimonials as to character, ability, personality, and scholarship.
5. Theses, papers, or reports of investigations, published or unpublished if available. These will be returned if postage is sent for that purpose. Confidential letters sent to the committee are retained.

These applications and recommendations for the fellowship must be received not later than April 15th of the year to be awarded.

CHAIRMEN

The chairman of the committee is: Susan Hunt, 238 Causeway Street, Medfield, MA 02052

The co-chairmen of the committee are:

Sylvia Anderson, 12 Old Sandown Road, Chester, NH 03036 and Carol Leonard, 1660 Fox Knoll Rd., Leonard, MI 48367.

e-mail address: palettepetals@gmail.com.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

The acceptance of the fellowship implies the obligation on the part of the student to devote herself unreservedly to study or research as outlined in her application and to submit any proposed change in her plan to the chairman for approval. Also, she will send to the chairman at least two reports on her work; one at the end of the first semester and another upon the completion of the year's work. The Committee regards the acceptance of the fellowship as creating a contract requiring the fulfillment of these conditions.